The following observations on the clarity of the claims, description, and drawings or on the question whether the claims are fully supported by the description, are made:
see separate sheet

Chapter V -----

Reference is made to the following documents:

D1 = WO-A-9734503

D2 = US-A-4 839 193

Novelty

- 1.) A processes according to Claim 1 on file, wherein a soft expanded foodstuff is treated at two pressures and temperatures has not been described in the documents of the search report. In D1 it cannot be directly and unambiguously derived that an expanded product is treated at two different pressures.
- 2.) Claim 2 describes a process comprising the following steps:
 - (a) the soft product (may be in partially expanded condition) contains vaporisable expanding agent,
 - (b) is passed from temperature T_1 and pressure P_1 to
 - (c) a setting region with $T_2 < T_1$ and $P_2 < P_1$
 - (d) thereby the product is expanded or further expanded.
- 3.) Such a process has been described in D1 (Example 3 referring to Example 1). Into the soft, unexpanded product CO_2 is injected before extrusion (step (a)) and the mass is extruded at 2760 kPa and 50-55°C (step (b)) to room temperature and atmospheric pressure (step (c)). Only then the expanded product is passed on to the drying step.
- 4.) Consequently the subject - matter of Claims 2,3,6,9,11,12,14,15,16,17, 18 is not novel.

INTERNATIONAL PRELIMINARY EXAMINATION REPORT - SEPARATE SHEET

International application No. PCT/GB00/00102

Inventive step

No teaching has been given in D1 or D2 to apply the process to the soft expanded foodstuff. Thus, the subject - matter of Claim 1 is not considered to be derivable from these documents. However, since the dependent claims also refer to Claim 2 or another claim which is dependent on Claim 2, they formally do not meet the criteria for the inventive step.

Chapter VIII -----

Contrary to the requirements of Rule 5.1(a)(ii) PCT, the relevant background art disclosed in the documents D1, D2 are not mentioned in the description, nor are these documents identified therein.
